

Category 1 predisposing activity – case presentation

Symposium date	Saturday 12 August 2017
Venue	Epworth Clinic, Camberwell
Symposium title	Mental health in general practice symposium
Activity ID	103054

Attendee name

Attendee QI&CPD number

Please return completed activity to gpliaison@epworth.org.au or fax to 9426 8997

A 21 year old woman presents with lethargy and amenorrhoea. On questioning you note that she has significant body image issues, is restricting her diet and has an unrealistic goal weight. On examination she has a BMI of 16 and postural hypotension.

Question One

What differential diagnoses might you consider?

Question Two

What investigations might be important?

Question Three

What management options are available?

Question Four

What resources are available?